TAVOLO 3 | TABLE 3

by arch. Luca Donazzolo

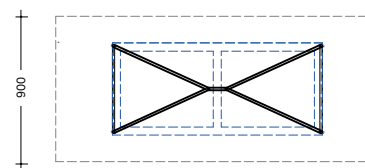

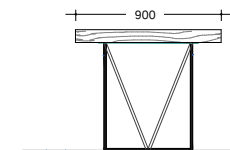

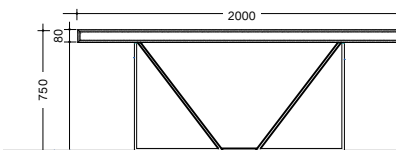

Si dice che gli opposti si attraggono e ad osservare questo tavolo Disegno di Legno pare proprio che sia così: la struttura in sottili tralicci di ferro grezzo che ne costituisce la base è il sostegno perfetto per il solido e spesso pianale in legno. Due materiali naturali che, uniti, regalano un'esperienza estetica e sensoriale a chiunque scelga di sedersi a questa tavola.

It is said that opposites attract and by looking at this Disegno di Legno table it really seems true. The thin, rough iron framework that forms its base is the perfect support for the solid, thick wood top. Two natural materials that, united, give an aesthetic and sensory experience to whoever decides to sit at this table.
